Weekend Events Sign-up

If you wish to participate in any or all of the special events this weekend, please add your name to the appropriate sign-up sheets near the break areas in Tory and River buildings. All participants are welcome to join every event; tuition-only students are asked to cover their own costs. For those that will be paying, please feel free to sign up and then contact Vince at vinceleclair@cunet.carleton.ca for further information.

All buses will depart from Residence Commons.

Here are the events planned this week:

Jazz Festival Concert (Friday, June 27, 8 pm)
Come enjoy a night of Jazz under the stars. Grammy award-winning artist Ben Harper and blues harmonica great Charlie Musselwhite will take over the Main Stage at Confederation Park this Friday.

Kingston and Thousand Islands Boat Tour
(Saturday, June 28, 10:00 am)
Join us for a cruise lunch on the Saint Lawrence River while touring the scenic Thousand Islands. Then, spend the rest of the afternoon exploring the historic town of Kingston.

RCMP Sunset Ceremonies (Sunday, June 29, 6:00 pm)
Attend the 25th anniversary of the Canadian Sunset Ceremonies. The world-famous Royal Canadian Mounted Police Musical Ride will be on display, along with other festivities.

Speaker’s Dinner Tomorrow

Please join us tomorrow evening in the Banquet Hall of Residence Commons for a thought-provoking discussion with the Honorable Dr. Ashni Kumar Singh, M.P., Minister of Finance, Republic of Guyana.

Fun Facts

Did you know? The Rideau Canal is a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Located two minutes from Carleton, it has biking and walking paths throughout the summer. But in the winter, the Canal freezes over and transforms itself into the Rideau Canal Skateway, the longest skating rink in the world!

Soccer and Yoga Tonight

Yoga, 6:30 pm in Athletics/Alumni Hall on the second floor. Participants of all levels are welcome.

Pick-Up Soccer, 6:30 pm, meeting outside Residence Commons. Everyone is welcome to come play, rain or shine.
