Speaker’s Dinner Tonight
Please join us at 6:45 this evening in the Banquet Hall of Residence Commons for a thought-provoking discussion with the Honorable Dr. Ashni Kumar Singh, M.P., Minister of Finance, Republic of Guyana.

Tomorrow: Graduation
IPDET Instructors and staff would like to invite you to the Week Three Graduation Ceremony and Celebration tomorrow.

The event will take place at Lago Restaurant, located on the scenic Dow’s Lake.

Please meet in front of Residence Commons for bus departures at 6:00pm. Dress for this event is smart business, and national wear is always encouraged.

Thursday Plenary
Today marks the end of Session I Workshops. Thank you to all our instructors and participants for the great work. Tomorrow we will meet at 9:00 am in 101 Azrieli Theatre for a brief Plenary before moving into Session II Workshops.

Happy Birthday to Ms. Rasmata Barry

Fun Facts
Did you know? Ottawa was formerly called "Bytown" after Colonel John By who was an engineer who oversaw the construction of the Rideau Canal. In 1855, Bytown was incorporated and became Ottawa. Three years later, Queen Victoria chose Ottawa to be the capital of Canada in 1857.

Leaving after today?
Please make sure to complete your particular session evaluation form, as well as the Week Three evaluation forms so we can collect your feedback!
